A PERSONAL GREETING TO OLD FRIENDS AND NEW

When you know Evergreens, you feel in their presence the hush of the vast forest—you see the silent sentinels, Evergreens, typifying permanency—defying time and elements. The Evergreen is something nature has given man to multiply eternal promise—the promise that spring will come again. In snowy winter, it gives the only note of comforting color to the riot of colors that the smiling sun coaxes from nature.

An Evergreen is like an old friend—the stress of years—the strife of a lifetime only make richer his noble character. So is a home surrounded by Evergreens like a man with many true friends. In the store of nature is many things beyond your power to possess, but any lover of nature can surround his home with Evergreens. In their manner is grace—in their color is rest—in their presence is inspiration—their influence perpetual. An Evergreen is truly a tree with a great and noble character.
